THE DEMOCRATS VOTED TO-DAY.

The Senatorial Plumb Still Behind a Cloud.

(Special to the REPUBLICAN.)

SENTEFORD, Feb. 25.—In the joint session to-day all the 204 members were in attendance, but the Republicans and two Democrats refused to vote.

The ballot was: Morrison, 98; Gen. Palmer, 1, and Haines, 1.

The different committees are now at work.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Third Finding of the Swain Court-Martial Approved by the President.

Why the Eighteen Hundred Employees of the Pension Bureau Were Granted Leave of Absence—All Sick.

America's Share in the Congo Conference An Inquiry—Capital Notes—Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 25.—The President has finally approved the finding of the court-martial which tried Brigadier-General Swain. The verdict of the court is, that General Swain be suspended from rank and duty for twelve years and to forfeit one-half his monthly pay during that period. This finding, which the President has approved, was the third in this case.

The first finding of the court suspended the general from rank, duty and pay for three years. The President sent this back as not commensurate with the offense as found by the court. Upon reconsideration, the court revoked its former sentence and found as follows: "He be suspended from rank and duty for one year, with forfeiture of all pay for twelve months, and at the end of that period be restored to the grade of Major-Adjutant, with the rank of Major in the Judge-Advocate General's Department."

The second finding of the court again approved, on the ground that the sentence was not sufficiently severe, and also for the reason that to place a general in the grade of Major-Adjutant, which he would hold for the remainder of his life, is a part of the punishment of a general officer.

With this decision before them, the court finally decided to suspend General Swain for twelve years. President Arthur, while approving this sentence as the best of the three, says it is difficult to understand how the court could be willing to have General Swain remain a pensioner upon the army register, while it exposed his name of his military career to the contempt of his country.

AN OPERATOR'S PLEA.

A Respectable Young Man Asks to be Sent to the Work-House.

Persistently Pursued by Misfortune, He Arrives at the End of a Long Journey Cold and Hungry.

Days and Nights on the Streets of St. Louis—His Request Denied—Success at Last.

St. Louis, Mo., February 25.—When the First Police Court adjourned yesterday morning, a young man comfortably dressed and clean in appearance, approached Judge Cady and politely waiting at the Clerk's desk for a look of invitation from his honor, ascended the steps.

"Well, sir, what do you want?" asked Judge Cady, naturally supposing that he had come forward to intercede for some offender.

"I want to ask you, Judge, if you can commit me to the Work-house for thirty days or sixty days?"

"What have you done?"

"I haven't done anything."

"Have you been drinking?"

"No, sir."

"Where do you live?"

"I've been living on the streets of St. Louis for the last three days and nights, and I am anxious to get more comfortable quarters than these."

On being questioned the young man said: "I don't like to give my name, but you can refer to A. E. Mills if you desire to verify my story. I am a telegraph operator, and worked in the Western Union office at Pittsburgh until last July, when they shut down. I went to work there in a mill, but they shut down. I then started for this city, trying to get work on the road, but I failed. I now live in a cheap hotel, and since I've been walking the streets cold and hungry. If you can do so, I wish you would send me to the Work-house, where, at least, I'll have a roof over my head."

Judge Cady informed the young man he did not have the power to send him to the Work-house, but he began a subscription, to which all bystanders contributed.

Councilman Ed. Devoy, who happened into the room at the time, heard the story and gave Mills a letter to a friend, with a request to give the bearer work. The young fellow was very grateful for the kindness shown him.

Visiting Albany.

Statemen Who Want Positions for Themselves or Their Friends.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 25.—Senator Lamar left on the 2:40 p. m. train, and will proceed at once to Washington. It is expected that this is about the last visit of proposed Cabinet officers that will be made to the Willet street mansion.

President-elect Cleveland received a visit yesterday from Hon. Mantou Marple, formerly of the New York World, and took a long walk in his company. Mr. Marple has no particular person to urge for a position, but being well acquainted with party men, he was able to acquaint the President-elect with many concerning their standing and positions, which it was important for him to know.

The Knights of St. Patrick, of Springfield, Mass., have adopted a memorial requesting the appointment of Patrick A. Collins, of this State, as Secretary of the Navy. This memorial was presented to Mr. Cleveland yesterday by Messrs. James O'Keefe, J. F. Callahan and Jas. Duran. Mr. Duran, a well-known local politician, went with the memorial to the President-elect, and was able to acquaint him with the standing and positions of the candidates, which it was important for him to know.

Colonel Lamont has gone to his home at McGrawville to arrange some private matters before leaving for Washington. Senator Jackson, of Mississippi, is now prominently mentioned for Attorney General, and it is considered certain that Thurman will have the Interior Department. There is nothing certain as to whether the Secretary of State will be Senator Bayard or Lamar.

Mr. Cleveland has finished his inaugural address, and has only some private matters to arrange previous to his departure from this city.

Evarts at Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 25.—Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, United States Senator-elect, arrived at noon to-day. He was welcomed by State Senator Arkell and others, and was driven to the executive mansion, where he called on Governor Clinton. Mr. Evarts was called upon by President-elect Cleveland. In the afternoon Mr. Evarts had an informal reception, and many prominent citizens and Legislators called.

Another Consultation.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 25.—United States Senator Lamar had another long consultation with Mr. Cleveland and left by the 3:40 train for New York. Mr. Lamar would give no intimation of the result of his visit.

Governor Hoadley Denies.

COLUMBUS, O., February 25.—Governor Hoadley said last night that there was no truth in the statement that he had received a letter from Samuel J. Tilden informing him that his (Hoadley's) name was one of a list of fourteen from which Mr. Cleveland had decided to select his Cabinet.

Rumors Denied.

Parties Most Interested Knowing Nothing of Them.

NEW YORK, February 25.—Judge Houston, one of the receivers of the West Shore Railroad, said yesterday that if there was any foundation for the report that Mr. Vanderbilt is trying to buy up the West Shore Road he would be likely to know it. As it was, he had no knowledge that Mr. Vanderbilt intended anything of the sort.

"If Mr. Vanderbilt were making a move to obtain control of the West Shore," he said, "I do not see how the receivers can fail to be aware of it."

Mr. S. V. White was asked if there was any truth in either rumor. He replied: "I have no knowledge in the world about either."

"The same old story," said an officer of the West Shore Railroad.

A Coming Fight.

CHICAGO, Ill., February 25.—Captain James H. Dalton, the pugilist, left for New Orleans last night, where he meets Mike Kelly in a fight to the finish in the law courts. The Captain feels confident he will defeat Kelly.

Two Serious Charges.
This forenoon Constable Sprague arrived in Decatur from Friends Creek township, having custody Newton and Lawson Bricker, two young men, nephews of Unruh Bricker, who are charged with taking away two fine horses belonging to Lansky Jones, and for making an assault on James Allen Jones and Harry Wicks on Feb. 21st. The prisoners were taken before Judge Curtis when March 3d was fixed as the day for the examination.
The parties were allowed to depart on giving $200 bail each on the malicious mischief charge, and $1000 bail each on the assault charge. The arrest has occasioned a great deal of feeling on the part of the accused and their relatives.

A Change.
On March first Mr. Albert F. Ross formerly with Race & Co.—everybody knows "Al"—will succeed H. W. Fenton in the clothing business at the old stand on Water street. He has purchased the stock, and will take steps to let the city and country folks know that he is ready to give them good goods and fine bargains in his line. Al is a young man of energy and experience and deserves success. A merchant tailoring department will be added, with M. L. Parker in charge.

A freight train on the Monticello branch of the Wabash came to grief last night near the Powers farm. Seven of the cars jumped the track, and passengers in a hurry to get to Decatur had to walk to town.

The occupants of a $5 a month office had a lively racket this forenoon about the payment of the rent. One of the parties threatened to throw the other out of the office, over the railway down into the street, whereupon there was a war dance but no blood shed. Verily, the times are hard.

The Lecture Course.
The Zaneville Times says "For a really entertaining entertainment that of last night would be hard to beat. The Nashville Students may not render classical music, but they do render music of a mighty lively kind, which is as enjoyable in its way as the other. As the curtain rose the familiar strains of "Swanee River" fell on the ears of the audience and served as a prelude to the first part, the "Jubilee Meeting." "Down on the Old Camp Ground" and "Peter, Gay Ring" were the best rendered of the first part. In the second part "Favorite Melodies" the "Aged Ladies" by Ed wards and Miss Campbell was good, but the selections of the Male Quartette was the event of the evening and were simply immense. Talk of applause! Campaign never received such an ovation as that A. Reilein sang. He had a lovely audience. Hear them to-morrow night.
Gallery tickets 35 cents.

Tickets for the lecture of the famous Union soldier, Gen. Prentiss, may be had of the ladies of the Relief Corps, the G.
A. R. members, and of the Sons of Veterans. Prices, 25 cents to gallery, 50 cents down stairs, no extra charge for reserved seats. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the relief fund of Danabum Post.

Last evening Miss Pot Buckingham entertained a large party of friends very delightfully at her commodious home on West William street. The party was given in honor of Miss Christine, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Reed, of Canada.
There was dancing during the evening, and a choice collation was served. There were about 30 in the company.

Andrews Post Assessor.
Will O. Andrews is to-day announced for assessor. He needs no introduction at our hands, for he is as well and favorably known as any of our citizens. He is a man of good judgment, well qualified for the duties of this important office. If elected he will no doubt give universal satisfaction.

Last night at the business meeting of the Presbyterian congregation John K.

Thursday.

She tried her penitence hand on man

"What is woman's worth?" asked a for-damed of a crin ty old bachelor. He did not know, so she said, W. O. man (dubbe

It cures it, it cures it, and builds up the system. Send for letter stating full particulars to Wm. H. D. Spaulding, M.D., Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The "Theatricals" company arrived today from Bloomington, and will appear to-night at the opera house. Send to Pantograph.

Duch's theater was packed last night with north loving people, who wanted to laugh at Morton and Baile's "Strategic company." The troupe is first class in every respect, and came heavily armed with every variety of comedy. Mr. H. B. Baile, as Jack Rutledge, was excellent, and the audience howled with laughter at his pranks. Mr. Will Gray received ten dollars applause in his German clown and apoplectic, and Mr. Rayner a mad up as the duke was perfection. Miss Kate Gilbert made an attractive Nellie. 25 Go to night. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. No extra for reserved seats.

Remains of the Late Mrs. Werner Consigned to the Grave.
The funeral of the late Mrs. A. M.
Werner took place yesterday afternoon from the First M. E. Church, in the presence of a congregation of sympathizing friends that completely filled the large room. Many were compelled to stand during the affecting services. Members and officers of the church were there, and also about 75 members of the W. C. T. U., who marched from their rooms to the house and in a body accompanied the remains to the church. The services were interpersed with appropriate music, and were conducted by Rev. I. I. Conliss, the pastor, and Rev. Adams, of Clinton, prayer by Rev. J. W. Tyler. The clergyman spoke tenderly of the deceased, and addressed words of consolation to the weeping family. About the altar were placed many beautiful floral offerings, among which were "Gloria Aysa" and a fine wreath. During the service the following resolutions adopted by the First M. E. Sabbath school and W. C. T. U. were read:

Whereas it is right and eminently proper when a good person dies for the friends of such one to give expression to their feelings in such a manner as to be words of praise of their good qualities, showing to the world the high esteem in which they were held in their many virtues and excel-lences of character. Therefore be it resolved, that in the death of Sister Werner this school has sustained a great loss, and feeling as a did a cultivated mind more than ordinary intelligence directed by a heart the impulses of which were born of the purest motives.

We feel that we are known few fifteen any, who were Christ like as she. So in this we are all united, and we are all voted to God, and the highest interests of humanity. We shall strive to be like her, and to carry forward the good works she has left for us to do.

Resolved, that we will pray, that a don't forget her spirit, and that we will all take up her unfinished work that God's cause be not hindered.

Resolved, that we tender to the bereaved husband and son and to the little ones committed to her care and the dear relatives our heartiest sympathies in their deep affliction, and commend them to him who said, I see not your heart is troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in Me, and ye shall not be afraid of anything. And ye shall be happy as in my Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house,
and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me
in My Father's house, and ye shall be
with me in My Father's house, and ye
shall be with me in My Father's house,
and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me in My Father's house, and ye shall be with me
